

Program:

Flood Damage Data Collection Program

IWR Contact: POC

Description: The purpose of the Flood Damage Data Collection Program (FDDC) is to provide economists and other analyst with tools to more accurately and efficiently estimate the economic impacts of flooding by collecting primary data, providing analysis, and supplying analytical tools as determined by soliciting the desires of Corps of Engineer economists.

Web Site: